About

Born in Washington state, Erin Elyse first performed onstage at age 3 as part of a local children's choir. Since then, she immersed herself in various artistic disciplines such as acting, set design, lighting design, backstage event management, and special effects. Her natural knack for rhythm is evident - whether she's on the turntables, the drumset, or the dance floor.

Erin's affinity for karaoke rapidly launched her into the professional DJ/MC world, where she passionately captivates audiences at nightclubs, weddings, and private/corporate events. Since her official debut in 2013, her eclectic clientele has been enamored by her infectious energy and unique ability to transcend genre boundaries, intuitively curating experiences that resonate profoundly with each person present. To date, she has entertained over a thousand gatherings, leaving a lasting impression on audiences worldwide; from Seattle to Nashville, Chicago to Los Angeles, Tampa to Jamaica, and even Costa Rica. Erin is currently based in Charleston, South Carolina, where her powerful presence and skill has earned her the moniker "Queen of Clubs". She eagerly embraces opportunities to showcase her talents and collaborate with artists, venues, and event organizers worldwide.
